- An integrated library management system (ILMS) is an enterprise resource planning systems for library, used to track items owned, orders made, bills paid, and patrons who have borrowed. An Integrated Library Management System (ILMS) is an automated package of library services that contains several functions. These functional usually include circulation, acquisitions and cataloguing etc.

The integrated Library Management System (ILMS): ILMS is utilized in college library.

Components of an Integrated Library Management System as follows:

- EXAMPLES OF MODULES Acquisitions (ordering, receiving, and invoicing materials) cataloguing (classifying and indexing materials) * Circulation (lending materials to patrons and receiving them back) * Serials (taking magazine and newspaper holdings).
- CATALOGUE The catalogue module is used for the storage and management of the bibliographic records for each title owned by the library.
- AUTHORITY CONTROL  A special module used with the catalogue module. The authority module is used for creating, storing and managing the authorized headings, such as authors names and subject headings used in the bibliographic records.
- CIRCULATION SYSTEM  The circulation system tracks borrowing and returning of materials, generates notices such as holds and overdue loans and calculates any fines or fees owing. Patron records are stored in the circulation system.
- ACQUISITIONS  the acquisitions module is used for purchasing and tracking receipt of library materials including serials.
- SERIALS  The serials module is used for purchasing and checking in serial issues. Usually the module will have the following functions -* Ordering (placing and renewing subscriptions) * Receipting of individual issues * Binding * Claiming issues not received * Routing list generation * Enquiries (related to serials) * Fund accounting
- ADMINISTRATION MODULE  The administration module is used for configuring the system for their own needs, such as creting IDs and passwords for staff.
- VERTICAL SEARCS  Is applied in college library.

LMS software is operating by Mrs. Deshmukh S.G.
