

CORE VALUES

- 1. Community – We value community by developing inclusive living-learning environments that cultivate personal and academic growth and interpersonal relationships.
- 2. Inclusion – We value the individual differences of members within our community by creating opportunities for members to embrace and understand the complex backgrounds, ideas, experiences and lifestyles of others.
- 3. Social Responsibility – We value one’s responsibility to the common good and shared values of the Trojan Family and challenge students to be mentally conscious and actively working towards creating equality, access and opportunities for others.
- 4. Integrity – We value integrity by instilling a sense of trust and moral character within the USC community.
- 5. Scholarship – We value the pursuit of knowledge inside and outside the classroom by encouraging free inquiry and innovation.
- 6. Student Service – Strive to ensure that curriculum, delivery, and support services respond to inquiries, requests, and concerns in an appropriate and timely manner.
- 7. Quality – Provide educational programs that lead to the acquisition of knowledge and skills necessary to achieve information literacy, career advancement, personal enrichment, leadership, and service to the community. To ensure program quality, Brining Institute assesses practices, policies, and procedures on an ongoing basis to strengthen the overall effectiveness of curriculum, instructional delivery, and operations.
- 8. Excellence – Critical assessment and use of appropriate resources to achieve successful outcomes
- 9. Motivation – We value the pursuit of motive and give inspiration students for their work and aim.
- 10. Peace – We also believe that peace means the absence of violence as well as respect for the fundamental rights and freedom of every person. We reject violence of any form in all places. We promise to make friends and be loyal to them. When there is misunderstanding, we are to look for ways to rebuild our relationships.
